

2016 Hawthorn Foundation Volunteer Economic Development Award

Governor's Conference on Economic Development

The Hawthorn Foundation Volunteer Economic Development Award is given to a person that has made a significant contribution to enhancing the economy of their community through volunteerism. The award is based on the nominee's volunteer efforts and commitment of time, accomplishments, community impact, and enhancement of the lives of others. The volunteers nominated for this award have set a high standard of volunteerism with their loyalty and dedication, and who, by demonstrated commitment and example, inspire others to engage in volunteer service.

Criteria:

- *2 year minimum of volunteer activities in the state of Missouri
- *Volunteer activities benefited economic development accomplishments in a Missouri community or communities in a substantial, important or unique way
- *Demonstration of exceptional leadership qualities, whether in a formal volunteer leadership role or through more informational teaching and mentoring activities
- *Provide volunteer leadership that significantly contributes to enhancing Missouri's economy
- *Nominee did not receive payment or compensation for volunteer services
- *Nomination cannot be based upon court-mandated community service
